COL. C. E. FANNING IN DANGER

Resignation from Governor's Staff Not Yet Accepted.

COURT-MARTIAL MAY RESULT

Fact He Quit When Enemy Was on Charge May Militate Against Him—Sugar Beet Experiments.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., April 9.—(Special.)—The resignation of Colonel Charles E. Fanning has been received by Commander-in-Chief Shallenberger of the Nebraska militia. It has not yet been accepted and it is probable Colonel Fanning will be refused an honorable discharge. Instead, he is liable to be court-martialed and drummed out of camp if not sent to the military prison for a number of campaigns.

The colonel tendered his resignation when his chief was under fire and in grave danger and for that reason it has been held by military authorities he is not entitled to an honorable discharge. He quit when the enemy was charging. He quit when the chief needed strong friends to pull him out of the hole into which he put himself.

To quit and take up arms against his own commander is considered high treason and the governor's friends have urged him to call a court-martial to investigate the reasons for the resignation of Colonel Fanning. It is possible the colonel was afraid to face the enemies the governor has made and if that is true the charge against him will be cowardice.

Experiment with Sugar Beets. Nebraska will very shortly begin to experiment with sugar beets. The Board of Public Lands and Buildings at the earnest solicitation of Governor Shallenberger having signed a contract to cultivate 100 acres of beets, to be sold to a contracting firm. The state will be out about $200 for the seed to start with. The governor anticipated it would require about eighteen months to attend to the cultivation of the beets. On paper the governor has figured an immense profit to the state.

Warden Smith, however, is very much opposed to the experiment and he is satisfied the state will lose money. In the first place the parties have failed to make money out of the sugar beet business and several factories in Nebraska have been shut down. The convicts, members of the board believe, are not capable of working the beets successfully and believe that there are too many risks for the state to enter into the business. But the governor insisted and got his way. The seeds will be sown next month.

Seward Bonds Missing. The owners of $10,000 Seward county court house bonds are trying to get the state auditor to record duplicate bonds because this little batch cannot be located. The bonds were kept in a bank, but somehow they cannot be found, so Attorney Cary and the county attorney of Seward county told at the state house today. The lawyers said the owners of the bonds were willing to put up security that the county would suffer no loss were the bonds duplicated. The auditor has made no decision in the case.

Litigation Over Lawyer's Fee. The case of P. A. Wells, executor of the will of John P. Johnson, against Herman E. Cochran was argued in the supreme court this morning. Lynde Abbott appearing for the executor and A. D. Churchill for the defendant, Cochran. A lawyer, Johnson was the owner of some land in Frontier county which was exchanged for lots in South Omaha owned by Samuel Weaver. It is charged Cochran acted as attorney for both parties and collected a fee from both parties. When Cochran died he had been paid $500 by Johnson when he was to go, so it was alleged, only the additional amount over a certain sum which the South Omaha property would bring, the executor brought suit for the return of the $500. The case was tried twice in the lower court, first in Lincoln and the last time the plaintiff, Wells, received a verdict, which was set aside by the court. Wells brought the case to the supreme court.

New Building for Fair Grounds. The state fair board will at once let the contract and begin the construction of its stock and judging coliseum. The board will build only one half of the structure at this time, having received an appropriation of only $50,000. One end of the structure will be boarded up so that the half building may be used this fall. When completed the building will be 300x300 feet and will seat 4,000 people. The stock ring will be 130x270. There will be standing room for 2,000 people. The half building will cost $60,000 and when completed the entire cost will be $110,000.

Magnus Flaws of Chicago will be presiding judge of the speed ring and W. T. MacCreary of Hastings will be the starter.

No More Commission. Nebraska has no supreme court commission. For the first time in many years the supreme court has met without the commission tall attached. The appropriation to pay the commissioners expired April 1 and this week the commission failed to sit. When the amendment was adopted by the people at the last election enlarging the court, and Governor Sheldon had made his appointments, the new judges concluded to continue the commission as long as the money lasted in order that it could complete the work it had on hand. The money held out until April 1. This was the first session of the court since that time.

Train Not Under Complete Control

Verdict of Board Making Inquiry Into Break on Union Pacific at Fremont.

FREMONT, Neb., April 9.—(Special.)—Blame for the wreck of trains No. 49 and second No. 10 at Fremont is fixed by the board called to investigate by the Union Pacific under control. The report in full is as follows: Board of inquiry, consisting of Rev. W. H. Buss pastor First Congregational church, Fremont; H. H. Gurney, vice president First National bank, Fremont; W. R. Cahill, assistant superintendent Union Pacific Railroad company; J. J. Kollier, district foreman Union Pacific Railroad company; and Charles Ware, superintendent Union Pacific Railroad company, has thoroughly investigated the matter of train No. 52 striking the rear end of train second No. 10 at Fremont about 11:30 p. m., April 4, and the Union Pacific Railroad company has protected the Fremont yard by placing a yard limit board about one mile west of the passenger depot and another yard limit board about one mile east of the passenger depot, and the rules of the railroad company require trains to move between these two yard limit boards under full control, prepared to stop within a distance that the track is seen to be clear, and we find that all employees connected with this accident understand these rules and the necessity of complying therewith.

We further find that the caboose of second No. 10 was properly protected by four red lights displayed on the rear end of same, namely one cupola light on top of the caboose, one red light on each side near the roof and the fourth red light on the platform. These lights were visible to the engineer on train No. 52 at a distance of 1,122 feet.

We made a test today with a freight train consisting of the same number of cars and pulled by the same class of engine as was on train No. 52 and a stop was made in a distance of 214 feet at a speed of approximately ten miles per hour, and it was found that the engineer at the time Engineer Shepard was in the caboose of second No. 10 and made emergency application of the air.

It is our decision that the accident was entirely due to the failure of Engineer Shepard to have his train under control between the yard limit boards as required by the rules of the railroad company.

Election of Central City Teachers. CENTRAL CITY, Neb., April 9.—(Special.)—The task of electing the corps of teachers for the Central City schools was taken up at the board meeting Monday evening and several selections were made. Prof. F. R. Morrow of Patterson was elected superintendent some time ago at a salary of $1,000 per year, succeeding Prof. A. G. Smith, who will go to Georgia to look after some business interests. Mrs. F. R. Morrow was elected as one of the teachers of the high school. Miss Margaret Porter, who was teacher of the eighth grade this year, did not apply for re-election and her successor has not yet been chosen. Mrs. A. W. Tooley was transferred to the high school and will have charge of the seventh grade. Miss Carr Brown was re-elected teacher of the sixth grade, Miss Pearl Measley, the fifth; Miss Jessie Powell, the fourth, and Miss Kenzie Brannan, the third and second, on the south side. Miss Beale Denton, who has been teaching in the country this year, was elected to the third and second grades on the north side, and Miss Ruth Anderson to the first and third on the south side. This leaves three positions yet to be filled on the teaching force, besides one instructor to put in half time.

King-Swanson Co. 6th & Howard Sts. The Home of Quality Clothes. Your Easter Suit! Will it come from the great store of King-Swanson Co. or will it be selected from the heterogeneous stocks and under the trying conditions found in the average clothing store?

Notwithstanding ludicrous assertions to the contrary, this store stands out pre-eminently as the men's and boys' store of the middle west. Three big floors devoted to masculine attire and they are not empty floors. Neither are they half filled with "carried-over" stock but they are filled to overflowing with all new 1909 spring clothes. The price of every one is according to merit, and guaranteed to be lower than a corresponding quality can be sold elsewhere.

Bring the Ladies to help you make your selections—we like to have them—and they'll enjoy visiting a clothes store, equipped and conducted as ours is. Look or Buy at this store, means—we are glad to sell our clothes if, after deliberately looking at them, you decide you want them—but looking does not necessitate buying here.

Men's Spring Suits While we have suits ranging in price from $10.00 to $35.00 we are particularly anxious to have you examine our medium priced garments. We don't make any absurd claims for them but we do say that if you want to spend your clothes money to the very best advantage our suits at— $17 $19 $23 $25 offer you the kind of opportunity you read so much about, but see so little of. The variety is well nigh limitless, too!

Young Men's Suits We don't expect the young men of this town to rush in and buy blindly just because we advertise—but we do expect the majority of them to come in and carefully look at the merchandise we speak so highly of. We are "finicky" about these suits when we are buying them and expect you to be. There are 1,500 young men's new 1909 Spring Suits on our Young Men's Tables. Your Suit is surely among them. $5 to $33 is certainly attractive, the fact that almost every one who looks it over comments on its brightness is probably due to its newness. No matter how attractive "carried-overs" may have been, they don't mix well with new stuff. Come in and look at the new Shirts—Manchester $1.50 up; E. & Ws. $2.00 up, and those select $1.00 shirts—while you're here, take a peep at new neckties, kerchiefs, hosiery and underwear.

Half Minute Store Talk. Many people say they never heard of Resist Dyes, until this store spoke about them—very likely. Lots of people ask how to detect Resist Dyed clothes. It is no secret with us—the simplest way is here explained—It is impossible to Resist Dye any two pieces of fabric exactly alike—therefore if the coat, vest and trousers, when laid together under the same light, appear of various shades, be careful. Compare both coat sleeves, both sides of coat and vest, both trouser legs. Take your time, it pays to be cautious. Yarn dyed fabrics like suits, news, vary in shade. Resist dyed fabrics always do.

The Best Hats are sold in every store in town, the most of them too, judging from the newspapers—but one thing is certain, men who come here and see our variety and examine our qualities, usually decide they're in the right store.

SICK DOCTOR Proper Food Fulfills His Right. The food experience of a physician in his own case when worn and weak from sickness and when needing nourishment the worst way is valuable. "An attack of grip, so severe it came near making an end of me, left my stomach in such condition I could not retain any ordinary food. I knew of course that I must have food nourishment or I could never recover. "I began to take four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and cream three times a day and for two weeks this was almost my only food; it tasted so delicious that I enjoyed it immensely and my stomach benefited perfectly from the first month. It was so nourishing I was quickly built back to normal health and strength. "Grape-Nuts is of great value as food to sustain life during serious attacks in which the stomach is so deranged it cannot digest and assimilate other foods. "I am convinced that were Grape-Nuts more widely used by physicians, it would save many lives that are otherwise lost from lack of nourishment. "Absolutely the most perfect food in the world. Trial of Grape-Nuts ten days proves. "There's a Reason." Look in pkg. for a little book, "The Road to Wellville." "Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."
